FOREWORD

We Seniors who are graduating in 1942, have striven to follow the precedent set by other Senior classes--the compiling of the "Perannos," a record of the years of our high school days.

In the future may we be repaid for our efforts by pleasant memories as we thumb through its pages. Thoughts of the sports, music, and all of the underclassmen shall not cease to exist, but will remain in our hearts for many years to come.

Dear Friends:

The goal towards which you have been striving for so long has been reached. You are about to graduate. Undoubtedly you feel a tinge of regret as you realize that you will soon be leaving your high school days forever. Do not permit this feeling to decrease your joy in a worthy task well done and in a definite end achieved, but set a new and still more worthy ideal for your efforts and continue ever forward.

Each individual is different from all others and each must choose the path through life that seems best for him. The heredity and the environment of each one of us has been different and each one's path will vary according to these influencing factors. Each one of you should sincerely and prayerfully try to take upon yourself that part of the world's work which you feel that you can do best, and for which you are ideally suited. Only in so doing can you attain for yourself the greatest happiness in living.

The Board of Education and your teachers join with me in wishing you every success and joy as you go forth into this war-torn world and it is our fervent wish that you may play an important part in promptly returning humanity to the pursuits of peace based upon a universal brotherhood of man.

Most sincerely yours,

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Estil Grimm our classmate who met an untimely death in June, 1941. His absence has been deeply regretted by all of his many friends.

In memory of Floyd Yinger who was instructor in English and history in Flushing High School from 1938 to 1941. At the close of the last school year he resigned to accept the position as Principal of Utica High School. Illness prevented his assuming his new duties. He passed away in January, 1942. While in Flushing High School, Mr. Yinger endeared himself to the faculty and students because of his unfailing sense of humor, his ability to be a pal to every boy and girl, and his good sportsmanship at all time and under all circumstances. Seldom does one find these qualities in such abundance in one man. All of his Flushing friends mourn his passing.

CLASS HISTORY

One fine day in September, a group of 120 bright intelligent children frolicked around in the halls of Old Flushing High School. They were what is known to the intellectual world as Freshmen.

Later that week they met in the study hall and elected a few individuals to head their class. They were: President, Dick McNally; Vice-president, Maxine Dyball; Secretary and Treasurer, Bud Wismer. They also chose Gerald Luce and Jean Henderson as student council members and they were all under the capable supervision of Miss Edick and Mr. Scott.

The second Friday they entertained the rest of the school and most especially the Sophomores by wearing ridiculous costumes to classes. The fairer sex wore overalls, men's socks and garters, straw hats and boys shoes. The young gentlemen of the class wore women's dresses and shoes and silk hose, with berry baskets for bonnets. In the evening, the Sophomores entertained them with an informal party with plenty of fun and action. So the year went by with only a few blunders and accidents and mishaps on their part.

During the second year they initiated the year's frivolous young Freshmen in a similar way and guided them up the stairway of knowledge.

They elected new people to lead the class in its affairs. They were: President, Maxine Dyball, Vice-president, Phyllis Fults; Secretary and Treasurer, Bud Wismer; and Student Council members, Bill Shockley and Margaret Bedford.

In their third and most serious year so far they had a number of undertakings, all of which were financial successes. First, they worked hard selling candy, pop, hot dogs, and gum at footballs games to raise money for the J-Hop. Second, as Juniors, they put on the October Whirl. The gym was decorated to represent a haunted graveyard, gruesome, isn't it? At the close of the semester they produced a stage success, "The Ghost Train," under the direction of Mrs. Davis and Mr. Fox. They ended the fine year by entertaining the departing Seniors at the J-Hop. The gym was a lovely reproduction of a colonial veranda and terrace.

With their heads full to running over with nonsense, they began the last lap of the race for knowledge. Many serious problems faced them, but most of them were solved and forgotten without much trouble.

The usual class parties and fun followed them through their last days of schools. A Senior play and a Senior assembly were put on, and they added amusement to a somewhat monotonous routine of study. The Annual was the most difficult task of all, but with many groans, grumbles, and much laughter, it was written. After being put to a grueling test by the censors, Miss Edick and Mr. Scott, it was praised or rewritten to everyone's satisfaction.

So, with tears of mingled gladness and sadness, they depart from the old halls of Flushing High School; halls that have seen them happy or sad, successes or failures, but halls that are proud of them. Proud because they were not too good nor too bad, but just ordinary American boys and girls learning to be ordinary American men and women.

The class officers during the eleventh and twelfth years were as follows:

Eleventh Grade

President--Gerald Luce
Vice-Pres.--Maxine Dyball
Secretary--Jean Byers
Treasurer--Wendell Borden

Twelfth Grade

President--Viola Jones
Vice-Pres.--Maxine Dyball
Secretary--Margaret Bedford
Treasurer--Marion West

CLASS POEM

They asked me to write a little verse
'Bout the class of '42
So I thought about the whole four years
That we had just been through.

In memory I walked back down
A chill and silent hall,
And gazed on all the graduates
That hung upon the wall.

I glimpsed the vacant benches
And all the fastened doors
But strange it was--I missed the Paper-sprinkled floors.

I sauntered to the lunch room
And smelled a sandwich-smell
When suddenly, to my surprise,
I heard the five-minute bell!

There wasn't a lull from that time on;
The hall was filled with noise
Of many lockers and many throats
Of Senior girls and boys.

Greetings were yelled along the hall;
Locker jams took place,
But there was a kind of friendly smile
Upon each Senior's face.

It's strange when we look back now
To days that are no more
To all the pleasant times and fun
That crowd in through the door--

The teachers and the studying,
The parties and the chat,
The friends we made, the things we did,
Study Hall, and all that.

They asked me to write a little verse
'Bout the class of '42';
I couldn't--so I give you this
And bid a kind ado.

By--Margaret Bedford

I, BUD WISMER, leave my bashful ways to my brother Bob.
I, MARGIE WOOD, leave my superman speed in Home Economics to Arlene Jessop.
I, BILLIE TOMERLIN, leave my southern charm to Alverda Boone. I sure hope "you all"--profit by it.
I, FERN DAVIS, will my long hair to any of those girls with Feather Hair cuts.
I, NORMA HAMMOND, give up my soldier boy friend for the duration, but want him back, forever.
To the Freshmen, we leave the next three years. May they enjoy the same things we did.
To the Sophomores, we leave the troubles of the Juniors. Good luck Sophs.
To the Juniors, we leave our shoes so you may step right into them.
I, FRANCES BUTLER, leave this will to any Junior who will.
Lastly, we appoint Mr. Evart C. Scott as sole executor of this, our last will and testament, on this day, the 12th, day of June, 1942 AD.

TIME MARCHES ON

BETTY BAGNALL and ALICE CONLEY have landed themselves new jobs, being Secretary's of the Barnum and Bailey Bros. Quite a circus, girls?

The new operator of the Barn Dances at Swartz Creek is KENNETH BARNES.

This year a new star was introduced into the ranks of the Detroit Tigers, none other than GEORGE BARTOS, our all star catcher.

A new School of Manners has been established in New York by Miss HELEN BARTOS.

MARGARET BEDFORD and KATHRYN BOWER are appearing in one of their famous violin and piano concerts at Carnegie Hall.

WENDELL BORDEN has been promoted from paper boy to business manager at Flint Journal.

SHIRLEY BUCHANAN has been the blushing bride of JACK LEWIS for over five years.

MAYNARD BUECHE has now stepped in the footsteps of his retired father, managing the famous Bueche Bros. Store.

In her 5th Avenue Beauty Shop, FRANCES BUTLER has perfected a wave that will stay in DON'S hair.

JEAN BYERS is doing fine in Washington; she is the President's private secretary, you know.

ONALEE CARPENTER has accepted the position of gym teacher at William and Mary College and is doing very well.

ELIZABETH COATES has found the way to a man's heart by her excellent cooking.

A new Dude Ranch, "The T-Square-Bar," has been established in Colorado by our former classmate, LOLA COATES.

Three novels have just been published by a well-known author, JUNE CONKLIN. They are:

Walking in Thy Brothers Footsteps--ROBERT CHURCH.

The Little Angel--JACK CRARY.

The Art of Driving a Car--MARGIE DARLING.

FERN DAVIS is in Hollywood as stand-in for Veronica Lake.

LEE DAVIS is now a C.B.S. news commentator in Russia.

We now find GLORIA DICK has half ownership in the King's Daughters home, teaching all the little folks good manners.

What's this? We have heard that MAXINE DYBALL has at last achieved what she started; writing the gossip for the New York Times.

DELPHINE JASINSKI and JULIA FERGUSON are stenographers in Marshall-Field Department Store at Chicago.

MARVEL FAIRBANKS is at present making victory skirts, Oh my! What next?

MAX FAIRBANKS and CARL GILLAM are managing a taxi-cab company consisting of one car running between Flushing and Flint.

BOB FERGUSON, who is farming in Iowa, has finally found that corn belongs on the cob when telling jokes.

Read the other day that PHYLIS FULTS has acquired half ownership in a bakery--the dough is being taken care of now.

SHIRLEY GAUTHIER has accepted a position as a writer for True Story Magazine.

With the experience he has had tinkering with his "31." ford, KEN HAGENBUCH now has a garage of his own to help others with their--Fords.

When ditches aren't dug deep enough, WILLARD HALL, RUNDELL KINEE and MIKE LUTZ seem to find out that you may get "K.P." They're in the army now.

NORMA HAMMOND has married her soldier after all these years--now she's in the army!

TIME MARCHES ON

Not only is JEAN HENDERSON and opera singer, but we find her singing to all the little bud's in her garden--we mean flowers of course.

VERA HUTCHINSON is living in Hollywood and owns a beauty shop of her own. It's listed in the city directory as, "Blondie's Beauty Corner."

BEV JACOBS is the coach at the University of Michigan, he says teaching the boys to throw good passes is great work.

We find that the second HELEN HAYES of this generation is none other than Miss VIOLA JONES.

The "Top-Hatters" Club has a new member, INEZ LABONTE, (men and women belonging to this club are over six foot tall).

At the present we find GERALD LUCE and DICK McNALLY speaking on the floor of Congress regarding the building of a highway over Lake Huron.

ART MAIMON is at last studying Webster to find what the different words mean that he has used so often.

VIRGINIA NICEWENNER has now gone down south as a teacher, teaching the little tots their A, B, C's.

Did you know that you have been hearing MARY NOVESS on the radio? She has been taking the part of Loreli, in "Big Town."

We just got a notice the other day that MIKE OLEYAR is now the new editor of Time Magazine.

Professor JIM PEARSON has finally proven Einstein's Theory of Truth.

DONNA PENOYER, who's name now is Martin, is proud to help represent the Holland Furnace Branch in Cleveland.

MARGARET PHELPS has recently established a studio for her piano students. She seems a very patient teacher.

In our town we now have an excellent collision service run by our own boys, none other than ED PLUTA and LINK RANDALL.

LYLE ROSENCRANTZ now has been promoted from janitor to cashier in our own town bank.

Well at last BOB RAYBURN has a place on Fred Allen's program--imitating Jack Benny.

Being a nurse at Hurley Hospital is a grand job, says MARILYN REED.

Just heard the other day that BILL REESE has a position in one of our country's leading dance bands as the swinging sway of the trombone.

We just found out that JEAN RAUCH is now perfecting combs in the McComb factory in Washington.

ALICE SHAW has taken Mrs. Cross' position back at Flushing High as Home Ec teacher. Mrs. Cross having retired.

Well, BILL SHOCKLEY has finally grown a mustache--he doesn't use mascara now.

It was ten years ago that the Senior class of '42 was fortunate to have with them the great Scientific Farmer--FRANK SPODNEY.

RUTH TINKLER has finally abolished her quiet ways and is a demonstrator of Edna Wallace Hopper's Clay Pack at the local five and ten.

The young songstress, BILLIE TOMERLIN, is now warbling to the Navy fellows.

DORENE TUPPER, now Mrs. A. B. Jones, has a beautiful new homes in Bloomfield Hills, and is as happy and good-natured as ever.

MARION WEST has recently been assigned to missionary work in an African jungle.

Say, did you hear about the Kentucky Derby winner? The horse was owned by none other than BUD WISMER.

MARGIE WOOD is now Proprietor of a dress shop, dresses are of one exclusive color--Can you guess it?

THE CLASS OF 1942

This is the Class of Nine-teen Forty-two" Flushing High We're about to leave you
And from the Class of Nine-teen Forty-two" We are all wish-ing Good Luck to you

We have met ma-ny teachers and friends, high school days have come to an end. We will miss you
We shall never for-get sports and fun. Our Class was al-ways act-ive in some. Now sports and parties one and all Life's great ad-ven-tures have made their call. Know-ledge that we have gained from are left be-hind, But we will al-ways keep them in mind. We shall never for-get high-school here will help carry us thru the years days at this good old Flushing High

BASKETBALL

Captain-----Wendell Bordon
 Managers-----Wayne Martin
                                   Lyle Rosencrantz
 Coach-----Myles Runk

SECOND ROW--W. Martin, L. Rosencrantz, J. Gibbons, D. Van Fossen, D. Miller, G. Luce, M. Runk.

Under the coaching of Myles Runk, a determined squad turned out the best basketball season Flushing High has seen. A record of 13 wins and 4 losses including the Genesee County League Class B Championship, the District Championship and a fine showing at Mt. Pleasant in the Regional Tournament made this a banner year.

Two regulars, Art Maimon and Bev Jacobs gained recognition by places on the all-county first team. Three other regulars Wendy Borden, Phil Traux, and Hobe Linder received honorable mention. Don Miller, Jerry Gibbons, Don Van Fossen, Dean Luce, and Jerry Luce, who substituted, will all return next year with the exception of Jerry Luce. Also lost will be Jacobs, Maimon, and Borden.

Further honor was garnered by Bev Jacobs who received honorable mention on the all-state poll.

With prospects of a strong team for the 42-43 year a fine season is in view. The scores of the games are as follows:

Flushing		Opponents		Flushing		Opponents
